Creating Better Together™

Course presentation

This practical course is designed for Surgeons with a substantial experience of Shoulder Surgery who want to improve their knowledge of solutions offered by Enovis.

From primary to revision cases, the course will offer an overview on a wide range of solutions. Our faculty members will share their extensive experience throughout theoretical presentations and tutor practical sessions on specimen.

Attendees are encouraged to interact with their peers and the faculty members. They are welcome to bring their own clinical cases to discuss
